

Bradesco discloses its 2017 Online Integrated Report

Dear Sir or Madam,

Banco Bradesco S.A. (B3: BBDC3, BBDC4; NYSE: BBD, BBDO; and Latibex: XBBDC) is pleased to disclose its 2017 Online Integrated Report. The web version is the result of our continuous innovation process in reporting and follows the best practices of corporate governance. Through the website, it's possible to browse through the institutional, business and financial information, as well as sustainability practices and initiatives, more easily and in a more dynamic manner.

This version provides a broader disclosure of information and indicators related to the theme, including the ones from the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), methodology used by Bradesco for 12 years, and the aspects proposed by the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC). In addition, the correlation between the main themes of the Organization and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) is also indicated.

The 2017 Online Integrated Report is user friendly, through desktop or mobile, and intelligible to the visually impaired audience. Bradesco has created Virtual Vision, a free-of-charge software tool that reads screens at the organization's institutional website.

Visit Bradesco's Investors Relations website - banco.bradesco/ri - and check out the new publication.

Cordially,

Banco Bradesco S.A.
